SEMINARY WELCOMES WILL SAVELL TO THE BOARD

The Board of Directors of Seminary for the Third Millennium are pleased to announce the appointment of the newest board member, Rev. Will Savell. He joins three founding board members: Rev. J. Edward Norton, Dr. Richard L. Pratt, Jr., and Judge C. Ashley Royal. Thirdmill Seminary was established as a subsidiary of Third Millennium Ministries in August of 2018 to provide multilingual academic degree programs, initially in English and Spanish.

Will Savell is the Founder and President of the Grace Institute, a non-profit that trains and resources church leaders for Christian ministry with Biblical education. He also chairs Lionheart Foundation, a private foundation that provides funds and exposure to organizations that serve the under-resourced and marginalized. He is married to Elaine and is father to Emma, Jack, and Ally. They currently reside in Memphis, Tennessee.

Greg Perry, President and Associate Professor of New Testament at Thirdmill Seminary said, “It is a delight to welcome my friend and ministry partner, Will Savell, to the Board of Thirdmill Seminary. Will brings many gifts, not the least of which is his ability to contextualize our curriculum in both Latin American and African contexts.”
